FINAL EXERCISES HELD AT SEMINARY

Diplomas Awarded and Degrees Conferred—Address by Bishop Strange.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Alexandria, Va., June 20.—The commencement exercises of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia, located west of here, were held this morning at 10 o'clock in the chapel at that institution. Bishop Gibson, president of the seminary, with the professors in their academic robes, were seated in the choir, and the graduating class with the other students occupied seats in front of the president and faculty.

After a short opening service, consisting of prayers and a hymn, the bishop announced the names of the students advanced from the junior to the middle class.

Diplomas were then presented to the following graduates: Joseph Tidball Carter, of the Diocese of West Virginia; James Harry Garner, B. A., of the Diocese of Washington, and Edward Anderson Penick, Jr., M. A., of the Diocese of South Carolina.

The degree of bachelor of divinity was conferred upon the Rev. Robert A. Goodwin, Jr., M. A., of China; Rev. William Gibson Pendleton, of the Diocese of Southern Virginia, and the Rev. Joseph Todhunter Ware, B. A., of the Diocese of Maryland.

The following clergymen received the degree of doctor of divinity: Rev. John A. Aspinwall, of Washington, D. C.; Rev. Frank G. Scott, of Petersburg; Rev. Robert A. Goodwin, of Richmond; and Rev. Edward L. Goodwin, of Ashland.

The Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., bishop of East Carolina, delivered an earnest and helpful address to the graduating class, after which the exercises were brought to a close with the singing of "Hail to the Tie That Binds" and the pronouncing of benediction.

Shortly after the close of the commencement exercises the annual meeting of the alumni was held in the chapel and called to order by the president, Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia.

A memorial address on the late Rev. Richard W. Meach, D. D., pro rector, theology at the seminary, whose funeral took place in the chapel at that institution yesterday afternoon, was delivered by Bishop Gibson, of Virginia. When this was concluded, the annual assembly of the Rev. William H. Laird, of Wilmington, Del., after which the regular order of business was disposed of. This was followed by the alumni dinner in the rectory of the seminary.

There was a large attendance of clergy and friends of the institution at the closing exercises, while the proceedings were solemnized by the funeral of Dr. Meach, who died June 1 last, in Oxford, England, where he had gone for the purpose of recuperating his health.

Among the bishops present at the commencement were the following: Bishops Gibson, Virginia; Randolph and Tucker, Southern Virginia; Peterkin and Gravatt, of West Virginia; and Strange, of East Carolina.

Among the clergy attending were the following: Rev. A. B. Kinsolving, of Baltimore; W. M. Clark and J. W. Gravatt, of Richmond; and the Revs. W. A. Crawford, Frost and M. Page Dame, Baltimore; Henry R. Klonan, Portland, Me.; W. H. Laird and Kenney J. Hammond, Wilmington, Del.; Dr. C. E. Grammer, Philadelphia.

The exercises will be brought to a close at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning with ordination exercises in the chapel at that institution.

Named for Temporary Chairman

ALTON B. PARKER.

BRYAN'S PROTEST AGAINST PARKER GOES UNHEEDED

That Judge Parker is looked upon as a so-called "conservative" Democrat, still, as a matter of fact, he is one of the most progressive of our party men and ranks in that respect as well as in all others with the foremost leaders of the Democracy in the country to-day. I am confident the Democracy of the country will hail his selection, if you deem it wise to name him, with hearty approval.

"To my mind there is no action this committee can take to assure the people that the Democracy is starting right than by selecting one of the two living past candidates of our party for the presidency as the temporary chairman of the convention. Had the State of Nebraska asked that its distinguished Democratic son be named as a presiding officer, I would have deemed it especially appropriate that he be named for permanent chairman."

Daniels Nominates Henry. Joseph Daniels, national committeeman of North Carolina, placed Representative Henry, of Texas, in nomination, and National Committeeman Hall nominated Senator-elect James, of Kentucky. Senator Kern, of Indiana, was brought forward by National Committeeman Hudson, and Senator O'Gorman, of New York, was placed in nomination by John T. McGraw, of West Virginia. The vote gave Judge Parker a plurality, and there was some discussion whether the nomination should be made unanimous. A motion to make it so was not made, and after the other temporary officers were chosen, the committee adjourned.

The selection of Judge Parker for temporary chairman to-night drew forth severe criticism from Senator Obidiah Gardner, of Maine.

There are scores of men in the country more competent to present the keynote of Democracy to the convention than Parker," declared the Maine Senator. "The Democratic party owes him nothing, and it would be folly to place a man like him in such a delicate position."

May Resign as Speaker.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Washington, June 20.—By far the most important pre-convention story which has broken here yet became current to-day, when it was rumored that Champ Clark would resign the Speaker's place in the event of his nomination at Baltimore, and that Congressman Underwood would succeed him; that Francis Burton Harrison, of New York, a member of the House Ways and Means Committee, would succeed Underwood as majority leader in the House; New York's case for Redfield, and making no open fight to land the vice-presidency, is in a receptive mood, and will take the nomination if offered him.

Clark would resign the Speaker's place if nominated because he would not wish to take the chances on placing himself in an embarrassing position, and, at the same time, the moral effect on the voters would be better should he cut entirely loose from Congress until after the election. It will be seen by this that one of the "demis" said to have been made several months ago by the Clark, Underwood and Harrison members to defeat Woodrow Wilson, has developed.

It is taken by some of the Wilson men to mean that Underwood sees defeat staring him in the face, and that in order to save himself would be allowed to be drawn into an arrangement which would make him Clark's successor as speaker. The Wilson people also see in this move an indication that the New Jersey Governor is the man whom the field is fighting, and that only a combination of Underwood-Clark-Tammey strength can Wilson be defeated.

Of course, no one here will talk about this latest "deal" to beat Wilson, but there seems to be little doubt that Tammey, in order to get second place on the tickets, either with O'Gorman or Redfield, will land its full strength for Clark, securing at the same time the position of Democratic leader in the House, now held by Underwood.

P. H. McG.

Clark Claims 400 Votes. Washington, June 20.—Fifty delegates to the Baltimore convention instructed for Speaker Clark met in conference at the Clark headquarters here to-day and definitely determined that on the first ballot, William Randolph Hearst and other prominent Democrats here present, former Senator Fred Dubois, of Idaho, Clark's campaign manager, presided.

The object of the conference was to organize an invincible Clark phalanx with which it is planned to sweep the Democratic convention of its feet and put the Speaker at the head of the ticket. There was no vice-presidential talk.

Committees to arrange details in Baltimore were appointed, and as a result of the "get-together" conference the singers of the "Horn" dawns will go into convention with definite instructions as to every detail.

Contests From Illinois.

Baltimore, Md., June 20.—Notification was filed to-night with Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, by Representative Henry T. Rainey, of Illinois, that contests would be made against the delegates-at-large from Illinois and the first ten congressional districts, comprising the city of Chicago.

Bryan Refuses Comment.

Chicago, June 20.—William Jennings Bryan refused to-day to comment upon the selection of Judge Alton B. Parker for temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention.

"I will not discuss the Baltimore convention until I get through with my discussion of this one," said Colonel Bryan, referring to the reportorial duties in connection with the Republican gathering.

Has Nothing to Say.

Rocheater, June 20.—Judge Alton B. Parker, when shown the dispatch announcing his selection as temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention, declined to make any comment, saying whether or not he would accept, he is in Rochester attending the trial of the Independent Telephone case.

Suggest the Title

Prizes to Be Awarded:

We have secured the services of Mr. W. J. Moran to draw this picture for us without an idea of a title. Now we want our numerous friends and patrons to suggest a title for it, and we are offering six prizes for the best and most suitable titles for the picture. There isn't a home, no matter how large or small, but could find something in our store that is a household necessity, and will make the coming hot days cooler and more comfortable.

To participate in this contest, you must purchase from us some article during the period of this contest. Each purchase gives you the right to make one suggestion. When you make your purchase, ask the salesman to give you a "Picture Contest Card," then fill it out with the title you are submitting, and your name and address, and turn it in to us. Every mail order purchase entitles you to make a suggestion also.

The contest will end July 6th. The prizes will be awarded soon after by three competent and disinterested judges. We will publish the names of the judges later. The best suggestion wins the first prize; the second best the second prize, etc.

First prize—One Suite of Furniture.....	$50.00
Second prize—One Coal or Gas Range.....	$25.00
Third prize—One Axminster or Wilton Rug.....	$25.00
Fourth prize—One Leather Couch.....	$20.00
Fifth prize—One Chiffonier.....	$15.00
Sixth prize—One Library Table.....	$10.00
Total.....	$150.00

Prize winners can exchange these for anything they want, provided it is of equal value.

Prizes will be displayed in our windows; come and see them. Look for to-morrow's ad.
